Connect

1. Describe the differences in how you would react if your spouse asked you to take out the trash vs. if the Queen of England made the same request. Which is a bigger deal? Would you do it and how? Who would you tell and how often would you tell the story?

Discussion

1. What stuck with you most from the sermon on James?
2. How has God used simply showing up as part of His big plan for your life?
3. When you're tempted to hide from or try to escape hardship, what motivates you to keep showing up?

4. Read James 1:2-5. Describe some ways hardship has increased your wisdom and what it has taught you about God's character and purposes. How could it make a difference to others?
5. Part of God's big plan for James was bringing unity to the Church. How might God use you even now to make a difference at FBC or the Church as a whole and what is hindering you? Read James 1:19-20; 3:14-15; 4:1 for examples.
6. Take time before we pray to text 303-647-3233 with God's insight into His big plan for your life or where you are in figuring it out. You don't have to share your name, but we'd love to put your response with a name!

Diving Deeper (Optional questions to go a little further)

1. Read 1 Cor. 15:7, Acts 2:1-5, 42-47. How do you think these experiences shaped James over time?
2. Read Acts 7 and 8. Compare and contrast the likely reactions of Paul and James to this event. How did it lead to God's big plan for each of them? Read 1 Timothy 1:15 and Galatians 1:11-24.
3. God's big plans and the process for getting there were very different for these men. How are you tempted to let comparing yourself to others hinder how God wants to use you?

Closing Prayer

1. Confess ways you are hindering unity within the church and ask God for humility.
2. Share hardships you are facing and ask God to help one another trust His plan in the midst of it.
3. Ask God to reveal His big plans for your life right now and for each person in your G2 and FBC.
4. Share and thank God for how He is already moving you to even seemingly small faith steps toward His big plans for your life right now.
5. Keep track of requests and celebrations from others in your G2 and pray for them.
